PROGRAM NOTES

Who could forget the four musicians who changed popular music the world over? John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, and Ringo Starr formed the most popular band ever and their music, written mostly by Lennon and McCartney, sold over one billion records! This arrangement gives a symphonic sound to four of their most revered melodies, "Do You Want to Know a Secret?" "From Me to You," "I Saw Her Standing There," and "She Loves You."

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

Dynamic levels have been carefully notated but may be adjusted to balance your musical organization. In addition, metronome markings have been given to aid in the interpretation of the various songs. Again, you may adjust the tempos, but try to keep the changes close to the suggested markings to keep the arrangement flowing.

The percussion section calls for mallet percussion (chimes and bells), timpani, and drumset performers. Those instrumentalists, along with the electric bass, should provide the basic rock band sound. The drumset part has suggested solo fills, but remember that Ringo had great musical taste as their drummer and his fills were not overdone. However, in measure 68, the drumset solo part is vital to the introduction of the next song, and should be played boldly.

Best wishes for a musical performance of these classic rock tunes.
