ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Caleb Chapman

As the president of Caleb Chapman Music, Caleb directs over 170 young musicians in ten elite ensembles. This includes the acclaimed Crescent Super Band, which has frequently been hailed as one of the best professional bands in the world to be comprised entirely of young musicians. In 2011 Caleb was named the “John LaPorta International Jazz Educator of the Year,” one of the highest honors in music education. He has also received awards as “Best K-12 Educator” and “Best Music Educator” for the state of Utah.

Caleb’s bands have been honored with 17 DownBeat Awards and featured at many of the world’s most prestigious jazz festivals and venues. His program has twice received the Best of State Statue Award, marking the program as the top organization in Arts and Entertainment by surpassing every other professional music, arts, and film group in Utah for the honor. Since 2001, they have performed with over 200 guest artists, including Randy Brecker, Joe Lovano, Christian McBride, Esperanza Spalding, Peter Erskine, Toshiko Akiyoshi, Gordon Goodwin, Bob Berg, Wayne Bergeron, Dave Weckl, Nicholas Payton, Lenny Pickett, Ernie Watts, and Bob Mintzer, to name a few. Additionally, his bands have received heavy airplay on the Sirius XM “Real Jazz” Channel.

Caleb is currently a board member for the Jazz Education Network (JEN) and is a Performing Artist and Clinician for Yamaha Saxophones, Rico Reeds, and JodyJazz Mouthpieces. He currently resides in Utah with his incredible wife and four beautiful children.

Jeff Coffin

Jeff Coffin is a genre-busting 3x Grammy Award-winning saxophonist, composer, bandleader, and educator. He is internationally known for his current role in the Dave Matthews Band (2008–present), as well as his 14 years as a member of Bela Fleck & the Flecktones (1997–2010). He is also very active recording and touring with his own band, Jeff Coffin & the Mu’tet. He graduated with a music education degree from the prestigious University of North Texas where he played in the acclaimed One O’Clock Lab Band.

Jeff has performed and/or recorded with a “who’s who” of musicians from a wide range of styles, including Branford Marsalis, Bob Mintzer, DJ Logic, New Orleans Social Club, Maceo Parker, McCoy Tyner, Lionel Loueke, Baaba Maal, Phish, Galactic, Kirk Whalum, My Morning Jacket, Widespread Panic, Willie Nelson, Garth Brooks, Van Morrison, Vinnie Colaiuta, Tuvan throat-singers (the Alash Ensemble & Konger Ol Ondar), Del McCoury, John Scofield, Lynyrd Skynyrd, the Wailers, and many others. Jeff likes to explore the many sides of music through not only his playing but his composing as well. A number of Jeff’s compositions have been published as big band arrangements and his original composition, “Zona Mona” (from the Flecktones’ Outbound), was Grammy-nominated for “Best Pop Instrumental Composition” in 2001.

An engaging and passionate educator, Jeff is a heavily in-demand clinician and a Yamaha Performing Artist. Since 2001 he has presented over 300 clinics around the globe to rave reviews. In addition to his varied musical pursuits, Jeff is also a passionate photographer.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Caleb and Jeff would like to thank Victor Wooten, Roy Wooten, and Chris Walters for making the fantastic music to accompany the book. We would also like to thank Tom Giampietro (aka Tommy G), Chris Walters, Mike Seal, and Evan Wharton for preparing the rhythm charts.

Caleb thanks Alison, Porter, Bryn, Ryann, and Kate for sacrificing so much to allow me to follow my passion; my mentor and great friend Dr. Ray Smith; Rick Drumm, Robert Polan, Jim Bailey, and Rico; Jody Espina and JodyJazz Mouthpieces; Roger Eaton, John Wittmann and Yamaha Saxophones; Stephanie Kettle, Randy Morris, and the amazing young musicians of CCM past and present who have helped develop these concepts and given me the best job in the world!

Jeff thanks Alfred Publishing and all the fantastic musicians involved in this project, Yamaha Horns, John Wittmann, Jennifer Vierling, Kim Hylick, all the students and educators who will be using this book and play-a-long, my teachers past and present, and, of course, my incredible wife, Ryoko.
