PROGRAM NOTES

A bright salute to Christmas from our fiftieth state, this 1949 standard has enjoyed a welcome reappearance in the holiday mixes over the past few years. First made popular by Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters, it has been recorded by many contemporary artists and has even made its way to television and the big screen.

Designed with younger players in mind, this setting captures all of the fun and happy island feelings with its colorful scoring. The delightful, catchy tune presents a highly entertaining experience for audiences and a unique selection for any December concert.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

The tune should always be prominent in this setting, especially when it occurs in the low range. Dynamics are thusly marked in the parts.

This would also be a great time to introduce trumpet players to the use of their third valve slides on the 1-3 (low D) and 1-2-3 (low C) combinations to compensate for the undue sharpness.
