

Come, Sing a New Song! is an original anthem composed in the spirit of a traditional gospel tune. Its text is adapted from Psalms 96 and 98. Additional corresponding lectionary readings include Ps. 33, Ps. 40, Ps. 144:9, Ps. 149, Is. 42:10–12, Rev. 5:9, and Rev. 14:2–3. The basic theme of this lively song is a call for all creation to sing a song of praise to the Lord.

In rehearsal, strive for a light but focused timbre, lively syncopated rhythms, and a uniform ensemble. Rehearse the entire anthem staccato “doo” until rhythms, pitch, and ensemble are secure. Add the text without adding weight to the sound, and caution the singers against singing too loudly, which will result in poor rhythmic articulation.

Lloyd Larson earned a B.A. from Anderson University of Anderson, Indiana, in 1976 and a M.C.M. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Kentucky, in 1979. He has done additional graduate work at Southern Baptist Seminary, The Ohio State University, and Northern Baptist Seminary, Chicago, Illinois.

Since 1982, Lloyd has been an active composer and arranger for several major publishing companies of church and school music. His compositions and arrangements include well over 1,000 published works—including choral anthems, numerous extended Christmas, Easter, and non-seasonal works, keyboard collections, vocal solo and duet collections, solo and ensemble instrumental works, orchestrations, and handbell settings. The resulting recognition has placed him in constant demand as a clinician throughout North America.

It is Lloyd's work in his local church that continues to be the catalyst for much of his writing. He currently directs the adult choir in his home church in Maple Grove, Minnesota, in addition to being involved in worship planning and leadership.

Susan Naus Dengler is a lyricist and writer, as well as a children's choir conductor, soprano soloist, and voice teacher. She received degrees in Music Education from West Chester University and Church Music and Vocal Performance from Valparaiso University. Susan and her husband, Lee, are Ministers of Music at College Mennonite Church in Goshen, Indiana.
