About the Composition

Path to Victory is a dynamic and exciting composition for the developing ensemble. With broad melodies and rhythmic punctuations, the music is reminiscent of the sweeping film scores of the “Golden Age” of cinema.

The piece begins with a bold melody that is the cornerstone of the composition. Some powerful interjections in the low voices and percussion add weight and drama to the melody. The melody opens up at m. 13 with more sustained accompaniment and some counterpoint in the woodwinds. The music pulls back a bit at m. 28 for a secondary theme in the woodwinds. This section should be significantly softer than the opening section. The brass take over this theme and should utilize a warm, rich sound. Some buildup follows to lead into the main melody returning at m. 48. This time, the melody is played in canon between the brass and woodwinds. Match the intensity of sound across the entire ensemble. Some interplay between winds and percussion occurs at m. 54 that sets up the final presentation of the main melody at m. 59. Keep the energy high as you journey to the exciting conclusion.

The Carl Fischer Performance Series for Band has five performance levels to provide you with a highly focused repertoire for your band. Each level has been carefully designed and graded, within specific guidelines, so that each piece in a level will work with your band when it achieves that level. Each level is also color coded for ease in finding the series that will be appropriate for your band, as it develops.

Within each grade level, you will find selections in a variety of styles and genres designed to meet all of your performance and teaching needs. The Carl Fischer composers and arrangers are some of the most respected writers in the business. Their music is dynamic, fresh and eminently worthy of your attention.
