Program Notes

The music for Relics of the Past was inspired by a trip to Yosemite National Park in California with my family. The expansive views of the park leave you in a state of awe. From Half Dome to Yosemite Falls to the giant Sequoia trees and more, one cannot help but feel like a privileged guest witnessing this natural beauty. There is also a haunting historical element to the land as a result of the battle for its control. This dichotomy of beauty and conflict is at the heart of Relics of the Past. This musical journey utilizes only the first six notes that the students learn and no rhythm faster than quarter notes in the winds.

The opening harmonic progression represents the expansive beauty of the park. This music acts as a common thread throughout the composition. The aggressive rhythmic figure that follows represents the conflict for the control of the land. The main melody of the piece makes its first appearance at m. 17. This melody in the trumpets and horns is enhanced by energetic punctuations from the rest of the ensemble. Further development of the melody follows at m. 25 which leads into a rhythmic break at m. 33. The low voices provide the impact, while the rest of the ensemble creates the tension with some basic dissonance. The dissonance thirsts for resolution which is given at m. 41. The expansive harmonic passage returns at m. 43 in a more reflective style. Please bring out the dynamic swells throughout this passage. A bold melodic statement from the low voices enters out of the aggressive rhythmic energy from the rest of the ensemble at m. 59. A build-up at m. 65 leads to a final statement of the expansive harmonic progression at m. 72. I employ the rhythmic figure to bring the piece to a strong conclusion.

Daily Variety heralds Sean's writing as "most impressive ..." with a "wide range of coloring in the orchestra..." that "...adds heft and rolling energy."

Growing up in Syracuse, New York, Sean displayed a passion for music and showed musical talent at an early age. Sean benefited from loving parents who supported his musical aspirations and challenged him to explore music as a career. During his undergraduate years at Syracuse University, Sean's musical career began to take shape with the guidance of Larry Clark. As Vice-President at Carl Fischer Music, Larry continues to be a major influence in Sean's professional career as mentor and friend.

Through his growing number of commissioned and published works, Sean is excited to continue contributing to the rich history of orchestral and wind band literature. He is a frequent guest conductor with professional orchestras and honor bands around the country. The Carl Fischer Performance Series for Band has six performance levels to provide you with a highly focused repertoire for your band. Each level has been carefully designed and graded, within specific guidelines, so that each piece in a level will work with your band when it achieves that level. Each level is also color coded for ease in finding the series that will be appropriate for your band, as it develops.

Within each grade level, you will find selections in a variety of styles and genres designed to meet all of your performance and teaching needs. The Carl Fischer composers and arrangers are some of the most respected writers in the business. Their music is dynamic, fresh and eminently worthy of your attention.

Primer Band

- All pieces use only the first 6 notes of the B $\flat$  scale
- Limited Instrumentation - one of each part, bass line covered by all low brass and low woodwinds
- Alternate parts for Horn that puts them in a better range, Trombone that does not go past 4th position
- Bass Clarinet part is also an optional Euphonium T.C. part
- Clarinet below the break
- Simple rhythms of whole, half and quarter notes. If eighth notes used only two repeated
- Active Percussion writing
- Timpani is an optional part
- Short pieces - length is a consideration for young embouchures
