Joy to the world,

all for the little ones, Christmas joy. Joy to the world, joy to the first Noel the night all people sing. They angels did say, was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they heard the bells on Christmas day, their old familiar carols play, and wild and sweet the words repeat of peace on earth, good will to all.

Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o’er the plains, saw three ships coming in on Christmas day, on and the mountains in reply echoing their joyous strains. O Christmas tree, O
