All Things Work Together for Good

Optional Responsive Reading
based on Romans 8:14-39

Leader: Those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God.

Congregation: And by our God, we cry, “Abba, Father.”

Leader: The Spirit testifies with our spirit that we are God’s children.

Congregation: If we are children of God, then we are heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ,

Leader: if indeed we share in Christ’s sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

Congregation: Glory to God in the highest and to Christ Jesus his Son!

Leader: The Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for,

Congregation: but the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God’s will.

Leader: And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him,

Congregation: who have been called according to his purpose.

Leader: What, then shall we say in response to this?

Congregation: If God is for us, who can be against us?

Leader: Who or what can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord?

Congregation: Nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Leader: So we are more than conquerors through Christ, for we know that all things work together for good to those who love the Lord and have been called according to God’s purpose.

All things, all things, all things work for good. All things work together for good according to God's word.
those who love the Lord and are called by grace to purpose and place while trusting in God’s word. We are trusting in God’s word. It may bring joy. It may bring pain. It may bring sunshine or rain. No matter what happens, no matter the test, we trust in God to work for the best.
