

Table of Contents

Preface	3
Historical Perspective	3
Song Classifications	5
Dance-Song Genres	5
Composers	6
Vocal Ornamentation	7
About This Edition	8
Acknowledgments	8
Antonio Literes (1673–1747)
1. Confiado jilguerillo (Aria)	10
Luis Misón (1727–1766)
2. Ya canta el ave (Minué)	18
Antonio Rodríguez de Hita (1725–1787)
3. De pena, de susto (Aria)	22
Pablo Esteve (1730–1794)
4. ¡Alma, sintamos! (Canción)	26
5. Tirana del cangrejo (Tirana)	30
6. Bailete agitanado (Bailete-Duetto)	34
Blas de Laserna (1751–1816)
7. El jilguerito con pico de oro (Minué)	40
8. La tirana del Trípili (Tirana)	46
Manuel García (1775–1832)
9. Cuerpo bueno, alma divina (Polo)	49
10. El contrabandista (Polo)	54
List of Works Consulted	60
Singing Castillian	62
Ten Pitfalls to Avoid When Singing in Spanish	63
Recommended Books	63
Key to the International Phonetic Alphabet for Castillian	64

De pena, de susto

Ramón de la Cruz

Antonio Rodríguez de Hita
Transcribed by Emilio Cotarelo y Mori

Allegro agitato [♩ = 112–120]

p De pe-na, de sus-to, fa-lle-ce mi

f p p p

[7] f p f p

vi-da, cer-ca-na o-pri-mi-da, del úl-ti-mo mal, del úl-ti-mo mal, del

p f p f p

[14] dim.

úl-ti-mo mal.

f

Idiomatic translation: Full of sorrow, full of fear, my life is perishing; I am a prisoner of the ultimate evil.

Tirana del cangrejo

Pablo Esteve

Pablo Esteve

Transcription by Felipe Pedrell

Allegro [♩ = 138–160]

Idiomatic translation: (1) Some say that the crab is a husband's worst enemy. But, I say: that's not true, 'cause
(2) Many students get a stipend in the city of Madrid. Some will get it in the schools,